Let me know when you're free. I leave town again on Thursday AM.

I'm pretty free this week, whats your week like?

I'm in town until Thursday morning -- then I'm away for four days for a benefit. I act as a crossing guard for bicyclists crossing busy roads on a ride from Boston to NYC -- using my motorcycle to "leap-frog" the bicycles to the next dangerous intersection. Then I'm back again. I like lunch-time encounters normally, but I'm hosting today thru Tuesday night.
